

SNAP Work Rules

You Must Follow These Rules to Receive SNAP Benefits

Dear _____, _____, _____,

This letter is to tell you about work rules for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). If you don't follow these rules, your SNAP benefits may decrease or end. Different people in your house may need to follow different work rules. This letter tells each of you what you need to do.

What do you need to do?

_____, you must follow the Basic Work Rules on page 2.

_____, you must follow the Basic Rules and the Job Search and Training Rules on pages 2, 3 and 4.

_____, you must follow the Basic Work Rules, and the Job Search and Training Rules, and the Time Limit Rules on pages 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

Does everyone need to follow these work rules?

No, only certain people do. You may not have to follow these rules if you are:

- Younger than age 16, or age 60 or older,
- Taking care of a child younger than age 6 or someone who needs help caring for themselves,
- Already working at least 30 hours a week,
- Already earning $217.50 or more per week,
- Receiving unemployment benefits, or you applied for unemployment benefits,
- Not working because of a physical or mental health reason,
- Going to a school, college, or training program at least half time,
- Meeting the work rules for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF),
- Participating in a drug or alcohol addiction treatment program,

What should you do if you think one of these reasons applies to you?

Call us at 1-877- 423-4746 as soon as possible if you think one of these reasons applies to you. If we find that it does, you will not need to follow any of the work rules in this letter.

Basic Work Rules

_____, you must follow the Basic Work Rules. Keep reading to find out what to do.

What do you need to do?

You must follow these Basic Work Rules to keep your SNAP benefits:

1. Accept any job offer you receive, unless there is a good reason you can't.
2. If you have a job, don't quit your job or choose to work less than 30 hours each week without having a good reason, such as getting sick, being discriminated against, or not getting paid.
3. Tell us about your job and how much you are working, if asked.
4. If we ask you to do a workfare program, complete your hours each month.

What happens if you do not follow these Basic Work Rules?

You may lose your SNAP benefits if you don't follow these work rules and you don't have a good reason.

What if you have a good reason for not following these Basic Work Rules?

Call us as soon as possible 1-877-423-4746 if you think you have a good reason for not following these Basic Work Rules. Good reasons include issues you can't control such as getting sick, not having childcare for a child younger than age 12, or work conditions that are unreasonable. These are some examples of good reasons but not all of them. Reminder: Check page 1 of this letter for other reasons and any work rules you may not have to follow.

If we find that you have a good reason, there will be no change to your SNAP benefits.

How long will you lose SNAP benefits if you don't follow these Basic Work Rules?

- The first time you don't follow these rules, and you don't have a good reason, you can't get SNAP benefits for 1 month.
- The second time you don't follow these rules, you can't get SNAP benefits for 3 months.
- The third time, you can't get SNAP benefits for 6 months.
- And you must follow these work rules before you can get SNAP benefits again.

Job Search and Training Rules

_____, you must follow the Job Search and Training Rules. Keep reading to find out what to do.

What do you need to do?

The SNAP Works Program is a voluntary employment and training program that offers:

- supervised job search,
- work readiness training,
- GED,
- vocational training for specific jobs; and
- work experience (a short-term unpaid work assignment).

If you choose to volunteer to participate in SNAP Works Program, this program makes it easier for you to find or keep a job.

To enroll in the SNAP Works Program please follow the below steps:

1. Work with your SNAP case manager during your interview to determine the right program for you.
2. Complete the activities of the program each month (we will tell you what to do).
3. Please call us at 1-877-423-4746 for more details.

What if you have costs from doing the program?

We must pay for your costs to participate in this program. These costs include:

- Transportation
- Childcare
- Personal safety items or equipment
- Other reasonable required costs, such as tools, books, and uniforms

If we can't pay your costs, we must excuse you, and you will not need to follow the Job Search and Training rules.

If you think you have costs, we need to pay, call us at 1-877-423-4746 as soon as possible.

Time Limit Rules

_____, must follow the Time Limit Rules. These apply to you because you are between ages 18 and 52, do not live with a child under 18, and are considered physically and mentally able to work. This is often called the Able-Bodied Adult Without Dependents (ABAWD) work requirement.

You can only get SNAP benefits for 3 months in 3 years unless you meet these Time Limit Rules. Keep reading to find out what to do.

What do you need to do?

You must follow these Time Limit Rules to keep your SNAP benefits:

1. Spend at least 80 hours each month doing one or more of the following activities:
 - Working,
 - Participating in a job program or similar activities we approved, or
 - Volunteering.

OR

2. Participate in workfare for the number of hours we assigned to you each month. Please call us at 1-877-423-4746 and tell us if you are doing one of these things. If your work hours drop below 80 hours a month, you must call us at 1-877-423-4746 within 10 days.

Does everyone need to meet these Time Limit Rules?

You may not have to follow any of these Time Limit Rules if:

- You are younger than age 18, or age 53 or older,
- Someone in your house is younger than age 18,
- You are not working because of a physical or mental health reason,
- You are pregnant,
- A veteran,
- A homeless individual or
- An individual who is 26 years of age or younger and in foster care on their 18th birthday (or higher age if the State offers extended foster care to a higher age).
- Reminder: Check page 1 of this letter for other reasons that may apply to you.

Call us at 1-877-423-4746 as soon as possible if you think one of these might describe you. If we find that it does, you will not need to follow these Time Limit Rules.

What happens if you do not follow these Time Limit Rules?

We will count each full month that you receive SNAP benefits but do not meet these Time Limit Rules without a good reason. Once we have counted 3 full months, you will lose your benefits until December 1, 2026.

What if you have a good reason for not following these Time Limit Rules?

Call us as soon as possible at 1-877-423-4746 if you think you have a good reason for not following these Time Limit Rules. Good reasons include issues you can't control such as getting sick or not having transportation. These are some examples of good reasons but there are others, too. If we determine that you have a good reason, there will be no change to your SNAP benefits. Reminder: Check page 1 of this letter for other reasons and any work rules you may not have to follow.

If you lose your SNAP benefits, how can you get them back?

If you start meeting these Time Limit Rules, you can get SNAP benefits again.

You can also get SNAP benefits again if something changes in your life, and there are reasons you no longer need to follow these rules. For example, you may get SNAP benefits back if you have a new physical or mental health reason for not working or because of other reasons listed on page 1.

What else does an ABAWD need to know?

ABAWDs must report when their monthly gross income goes over the income limit for their household size. They must report this change within 10 days from the end of the month in which the change occurred.

ABAWDs must report when a household member receives lottery or gambling winnings in the amount of $4250 or more. They must report this change within 10 days from the end of the month in which the household received the winnings.

What if you disagree with our decision?

You have the right to ask for a fair hearing before a state administrative hearings officer if you do not agree with this decision. You may be represented at the hearing by a lawyer, relative, friend or anyone you choose. If you want a hearing, you must ask for the hearing in writing or by contacting the agency within 90 days from the date of this notice for SNAP.

What if you need more help?

If you have questions or need more information, please call us at 1-877-423-4746.

Your Right to a Fair Hearing

What is a fair hearing?

If you disagree with a decision made on your SNAP application or case, you have the right to request a fair hearing. A fair hearing means that an official will review the facts of your case in a fair and objective manner as required by law.

In what situations can you ask for a fair hearing?

You may ask for a fair hearing if any of the following apply to you:

- You applied for SNAP benefits and were denied.
- You disagree with a decision on your case.
- You believe your SNAP benefits were not calculated correctly.

When is the deadline to request a fair hearing?

- If you want a hearing, you must ask for the hearing in writing or by contacting the agency within 90 days from the date of this notice for Food Stamps.
- You may choose to continue receiving food benefits only if your certification period has not ended. If you choose to do this, you may be required to pay those food benefits back if the hearing officer does not rule in your favor.
- Please understand that benefits may not be continued if your case closed at the end of a certification period or if your application to receive benefits was denied.

How do you ask for a fair hearing?

1. A fair hearing can be submitted by a client and/or the client's authorized representative by:
 - Mail
 - Fax
 - Email
 - Made by phone 1-877-423-4746
 - Dropped off at any DFCS office
