

Did you know that SNAP Works? Find out how it can work for you.

Get short-term vocational training that leads to certification

Get work support services that help with self-sufficiency

Get assistance with finding a job that leads to a career

Who is eligible for the SNAP Works Program?

SNAP Works participants include able-bodied adults, single parents, families, refugees, senior citizens and individuals with disabilities.

Our Valued SNAP Works Partners

SNAP Works collaborates with Georgia's leaders in education, vocational training, workforce development agencies and community based organizations to help Georgians become more self-sufficient.

Seattle Jobs Initiative

